This initiative reflects our dedication to community welfare and environmental responsibility.

Monday, 29th September 2025: Fire Safety Awareness Program at Bosco College of Teacher Education

On 29th September 2025, the Fire Station Central Dimapur, under the leadership of S.I. Menose Zashumo, Officer-In-Charge, conducted a Fire Safety Awareness Program at Bosco College of Teacher Education.

A team of six dedicated members from the fire department educated the staff and students on the common causes of fire, preventive strategies, and the correct usage of various types of fire extinguishers. The session also included a valuable demonstration on first aid improvisation in wilderness settings, equipping participants with practical survival skills.

The highlight of the program was the hands-on experience provided to both staff and students, allowing them to actively engage with the equipment and procedures demonstrated.

Dr. Fr. Jose Joseph expressed heartfelt gratitude to the fire department for their time and commitment. On behalf of the college, Inreusile, a 3rd semester student, delivered the vote of thanks, appreciating the team's efforts in enhancing the safety awareness of the academic community.

Friday-10th October, 2025 – Workshop on water harvesting

The PM-USHA Monitoring Cell of Dimapur Government College (DGC), in collaboration with Salesian College of Higher Education (SCHE) and Bosco College on Teacher Education (BCTE) conducted a one-day workshop on rainwater harvesting and ground water recharging on October 10.

Resource persons, Henmoi LL, assistant geologist at the Directorate of Geology and Mining, spoke on rainwater harvesting and artificial recharge of ground water. He has attributed over exploitation of land, cutting of trees and urbanisation as some causes for depletion of water level. He, therefore, urged to avoid clean water wastage and water leakages.

The major consumers of ground water in a city like Dimapur, according to him, are household use, water bottling plants, car washing centres, water parks, construction sites, large residential sites and institutions etc.

The resource person also presented some dos and don'ts on clean water management and developing some important habits of cutting water wastage, preserving water and recharging ground water.

Earlier, Fr. Dr. Jose Joseph welcomed the resource person and explained the PM-USHA programme, while T George Kire, associate professor of Commerce and member of PM-USHA Monitoring Cell at DGC, delivered the vote of thanks.

Saturday-11th October, 2025 : Graduation Day

The Graduation Day 2025 at Bosco College of Teacher Education took place on 11th October 2025 in the Multi-Purpose Hall, starting at 10:00 AM. The event was presided over by Chief Guest Most Rev. Dr. James Thoppil DD, Bishop of Kohima, and was hosted by Imkongwapang and Tsapila Sangtam. The ceremony began with an invocation by Rovikedono Meru.

Fr. Sabu Joseph, the Principal of BCTE, delivered the inaugural address, welcoming the graduates and introducing the Chief Guest. The program featured a Melodic Ensemble by B.Ed. 1st Semester students and an Inspirational Address by Tosovinu Weo, which provided encouragement and reflections on the teaching profession.

A Felicitation Ceremony celebrated the graduates, particularly acknowledging rank holders Ipeudaile and Diana. This was followed by a vibrant Dandiya Raas performance from B.Ed. 3rd Semester students, infusing the event with Indian cultural elements.

Ipeudaile's heartfelt Valedictory Speech captured the graduates' journey, sharing memories and challenges. The Chief Guest, Most Rev. Dr. James Thoppil, remarked on the significance of teaching, urging future educators to embrace their roles with passion. Performances such as Strings of Melody and Rhythms of Heritage showcased the students' talents and cultural diversity. The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks from Fr. John Phom and a Benediction from Fr. M.P. Thomas, emphasizing gratitude and unity among attendees.

18th October, 2025: Visit to Angel Home Rehabilitation Centre

On October 18th, as part of our EPC-1 course, we visited Angel Home, a rehabilitation centre that focuses on caring for children. The centre supports 20 young individuals dealing with mental health challenges, providing them with a safe and nurturing environment where they can receive the necessary care and guidance to improve their well-being. Upon our arrival, we were warmly welcomed by the children, whose bright smiles and cheerful greetings immediately touched our hearts.

The interaction began with a few icebreaker games to help everyone relax and feel at ease. This was followed by a series of fun and engaging activities such as singing, dancing, action songs, each thoughtfully designed to suit the children's abilities. These moments were filled with laughter and joy, fostering social interaction, creativity, and self-expression among the children.

We also had the privilege of meeting the devoted caregivers and staff of Angel Home. Their constant effort, love, and commitment in supporting the children's physical and emotional well-being deeply inspired us.

Friday, 24th October 2025: OUTREACH ACTIVITY TO CENTRAL JAIL, DIMAPUR

This initiative was met with enthusiasm as it provided a rare opportunity for participants to gain insight into prison life and challenge societal stereotypes. Upon arrival at Central Jail, standard security protocols were followed, including the deposit of mobile phones and checks on personal belongings. Jailor Sir Zubemo warmly welcomed the group, exemplifying the evolving role of correctional facilities from punitive institutions to centers focused on rehabilitation, with community and NGO involvement.

The event began in the chapel hall themed "New Life in Jesus," facilitated by Gabika Choppy in Nagamese. An invocation led by Sister Povithsü was followed by an inspiring welcome address from Alvina, who spoke on hope and reframing imprisonment as a new beginning. Musical fellowship involved worship songs, led by Maria, which engaged both inmates and visitors in spiritual connection and joy.

Romanus shared personal reflections and a dream about Jesus' presence in jail, urging attendees to maintain faith through prayer. Linoka's solo performance uplifted the atmosphere further. Tsasepi emphasized the importance of daily spiritual renewal akin to physical refreshing through bathing and the continual pursuit of God, regardless of circumstances. Petekhrieno closed with a prayer, and refreshments were shared among inmates, guards, and officers.

Though interaction with inmates was limited due to security, the shared experience of song, prayer, and speeches created a profound emotional atmosphere that illustrated the potential for positive change and hope within the jail. This visit was a significant and memorable success for all involved, marking an important chapter in their lives.

Saturday, 1st November, 2025: Outreach Activity to Tribal Old Age Home, Dimapur

A group of 25 student-teachers engaged in a visit to the Tribal Old Age Home at Ebenezer Orphanage Home in Dimapur as part of their B.Ed. program. The visit aimed to understand the needs of tribal elderly, provide companionship, and promote intergenerational relationships. Upon arriving in the Chapel Hall, the group felt a mix of anticipation and compassion, eager to connect with the elderly residents. Despite the challenges faced over the years, the residents' spirits shone through, creating an environment of warmth and welcome. The experience was framed as reciprocal; while the student-teachers came to give support, they also anticipated receiving valuable lessons of love, wisdom, and insight into life from these resilient individuals. This visit was not only an opportunity to serve but also a meaningful reminder of the significance of human connection and compassion, leaving a lasting impact on the students' lives.
